The Daily Courant.

Saturday, November 7. 1702.

From the Harlem Courant, dated Nov. 11.

Warſaw, October 26.

THE King has reſolv'd to ſend 8000 of his Men into the Emperor's Service, to eaſe the Poles of quartering them: His retinue and Baggage is already gone to Thoorn. On the 23d the Senatus Conſilium was open'd, in which the Deputies of Lithuania declar'd for the King, and approv'd of all that was tranſacted in the Diet at Sendomir: Thoſe of Great Poland have entred into a Confederacy likewiſe in favour of his Majeſty: And 'tis ſaid, that both the Crown-Marſhals and all the Poliſh Army are in the King's Intereſt. 'Tis reported that the King of Sweden intends to Winter at Janowic, and to quarter his Army in and about Caſimir, Lublin, and Zamoczo. The Sweeds demand 21000 Rixdollars Contribution of Lublin.

Dantzick, Nov. 1. The Saxons are come into our Neighbourhood, and are very troubleſome to the Farmers; they not only demand Proviſions for themſelves and their Horſes, but likewiſe 6 Rixdollars in Specie for every 12 Acres of Land. Two days ago a Party of 5 or 600 Saxons advanc'd near the Village of Ohr, to take Quarters there, as likewiſe in Schotlant, Stolenburg and Schidlits; but 300 of our Men diſputed their Paſſage at a Bar that hung croſs a Road; ſome of the Saxons attempted to cut down the Bar with Hatchets, upon which our Men warn'd 'em to forbear; but they did not regard them, and one of their Lieutenants advanc'd to forward the Work, and ſhot a Corporal of ours; then our Grenadiers gave Fire and kill'd the Lieutenant; and ſo both Parties came to a warm Skirmiſh; but the Saxons retir'd at laſt, ſeveral of them being wounded, and 6 remaining dead on the Place; of ours but 2 were kill'd. This has bred ill Blood between our Burghers and the Saxons, and 6 Companies have been on the Guard night and day ever ſince, for the Security of the City.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated Nov. 11.

Hamburg, Nov. 7. They write from Cracow, That the Boats that are heavieſt laden with the Swediſh Baggage and Artillery are a-ground in the Viſtula, and that ſeveral thouſand Men are ſummon'd out of Cracow to help to ſet them a-float again. They write from Warſaw, That the King of Poland is ſtill in that City, deſigning to continue there till the King of Sweden draws nearer to him, and then to go to Marienburg.

Dreſden, Nov. 1. They write from Berlin, That Baron Wartenſleben, who was lately made Velt Marſhal of the King of Pruſſia's Forces, is gone from thence with a great number of Officers to Pruſſia, to have an Eye to the Motions of the Sweeds; and that Count Fleming Lieutenant General of the Saxon Troops continues ſtill in the Court of Pruſſia, to Negotiate certain Affairs betwixt the Kings of Poland and Pruſſia.

From the Harlem Courant, dated Nov. 11.

Ratiſbon, Nov. 2. The Imperial Commiſſioner having propos'd to the Diet in the Emperor's Name, that a Regiment ſhould be ſent hither for their Security, or to Lintz if they ſhould think fit to remove thither, till Matters are accommodated with the Elector of Bavaria; the Diet made anſwer, That they referr'd it to his Imperial Majeſty to act as he ſhould think fit with regard to that Elector. And 'tis ſince given out, That there is ſo great hopes of things being amicably adjuſted, that Prince Lewis of Baden is order'd to forbear Hoſtilities a while againſt the ſaid Elector. Mean time the Places that are in the hands of the Bavarians complain heavily, and make preſſing Inſtances to be reſtor'd to their former Liberty; but they have been anſwer'd, That the Emperor having aſſur'd the Diet, that he has taken ſuch Meaſures as will oblige the Elector of Bavaria to change his Reſolutions, they muſt have patience a while. 'Tis ſaid a Body of 15000 Imperialiſts are arriv'd on the Frontiers of Bohemia and Bavaria.

Cowes, Nov. 4. Five Fluſhing Privateers are come in here from Falmouth, with 6 French Prizes that they have taken lately, and will ſail with them from hence to Zealand.

London, November 7. Yeſterday the Convocation went in a Body to preſent their Addreſs to the Queen, which Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly.
